WORK READY OP-SHOP BALL

FRIDAY 1ST MAY - TICKETS ON SALE

The Work-Ready Op Shop Ball is a vibrant community celebration! The event's aim is to assist local job seekers step into new employment or a job interview dressed with confidence. The night will welcome you with your clothes donation of pre-loved business clothing, from jackets and shirts to skirts, trousers and footwear, giving these items a second life where they are needed most.

The dress code is evening cocktail wear and we most definitely encourage your evening's outfit from an op shop!

For many people entering or returning to the workforce, the cost of suitable interview and workwear can be a real barrier. Your ticket (profits are donated to Transformations Hervey Bay), and clothing donation help remove that obstacle by creating a sustainable supply of affordable business clothing.
